Intermediate license laws for teen drivers

If you're under 18, you'll be issued an intermediate driver license and must follow these laws:

Driving with Passengers

- First 6 months: No passengers under 20 years old, except for immediate family members (spouse, child, stepchild, or siblings, both by birth and marriage).
- Next 6 months: No more than 3 passengers under 20 years old who aren't members of your immediate family.
- Nighttime driving
During the first 12 months you cannot drive between 1 a.m. and 5 a.m. unless you're with a licensed driver 25 years or older. The only exceptions are driving for agricultural purposes and transporting farm products or supplies under the direction of a farmer, as described in RCW 46.20.070.
- No cell phones
You are not permitted to use wireless devices while driving, even with a hands-free device. This includes talking, sending or receiving text messages. You may use a wireless device to report an emergency.
These restrictions no longer apply after you turn 18 years old.

Did you know?

Here are some safety facts to think about. Go to www.wtsc.wa.gov for more information on keeping teen drivers safe.

- Traffic crashes are the leading cause of death for teens. On average, more than 85 teens die in car crashes every year in Washington State.
- Teen drivers get in more crashes than adults. Even though teens comprise only 7% of all drivers in Washington, they make up 15% of all drivers in fatal crashes.
- Teen drivers with passengers crash more. 86% of teens killed in crashes were riding in cars driving by other teen drivers.
- More teen crashes happen at night; 4 out of 10 fatal crashes involving teen drivers occur between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m.
- Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) is a serious aftermath of many teen crashes and is often life altering for the entire family.
- Wearing seat belts correctly every time you are in a vehicle significantly reduces the risk of death and injury.
